OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER OF INCOME TAX
RULESNew Delhi, the 13th April 1968*

The following rules are hereby made to regulate the method of direct recruitment of Inspectors in the Income-tax Department:—

Part I—General

1. These rules relate to the Competitive Examination for the direct recruitment of Inspectors which will be held by the Directorate of Inspection (Income-tax), New Delhi in July, 1968.

2. For the purpose of these rules—

- (a) "Director" means Director of Inspection (Income-tax).
- (b) "Commissioner" means Commissioner of Income-tax.
- (c) "Inspector" means Inspector of Income-tax.

- (d) "Scheduled Caste" means any caste, community, race, sect etc. notified as such by the President of India.
- (e) "Scheduled Tribe" means any caste, community, race, sect etc. notified as such by the President of India.

Part II—Persons eligible to apply.

3. A candidate must be either:—

- (a) a citizen of India, or
- (b) a subject of Sikkim, or
- (c) a subject of Nepal, or
- (d) a subject of Bhutan, or
- (e) a Tibetan refugee who came over to India before the 1st January, 1962, with the intention of permanently settling in India, or
- (f) a person of Indian origin who has migrated from Pakistan, Burma, Ceylon and the East African countries of Kenya, Uganda and the United Republic of Tanzania (formerly Tanganyika and Zanzibar) with the intention of permanently settling in India.

Provided that a candidate belonging to categories (c), (d), (e) and (f) above shall be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been given by the Government of India, and if he belongs to category (f) the certificate of eligibility will be issued for a period of one year after which such a candidate will be retained in service subject to his having acquired Indian citizenship.

Certificate of eligibility will not, however, be necessary in the case of candidates belonging to any one of the following categories:—

- (i) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan before the nineteenth day of July, 1948 and have ordinarily been residing in India since then.
- (ii) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan on or after the nineteenth day of July, 1948 and have got themselves registered as citizens under Article 6 of the Constitution.
- (iii) Non-citizens in category (f) above who entered service under the Government of India before the commencement of the Constitution viz., 26th January, 1950, and who have continued in such service since then. Any such person who re-entered or may re-enter such service with break after the 26th January, 1950, will, however, require certificate of eligibility in the usual way.

A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary may be admitted to the examination and he may also provisionally be appointed subject to the necessary certificate being given to him by the Government.

4. (a) No male candidate who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment on the result of this examination unless the Government of India, after being satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempt him from the operation of this rule.

(b) No female candidate whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage shall be eligible for appointment on the result of this examination unless the Government of India, after being satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempt her from the operation of this rule.

Part III—Educational qualifications

5. The minimum academic qualification is a Degree of a recognised University. Provided that candidates who appear for the degree examination in April/May, 1968, would also be eligible to appear in this examination on the strength of a certificate from the Principal of the College/Registrar of the University. They will, however, be considered for appointment only if they pass the degree examination.

Part IV—Age

6. The candidate must have attained the age of 19 years and must not have attained the age of 23 years on the 1st April, 1968.

NOTE:—The upper age limit prescribed above will be relaxable:—

- (i) up to a maximum of five years if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe;
- (ii) up to a maximum of three years if a candidate is a bona fide displaced person from East Pakistan and has migrated to India on or after 1st January, 1964;
- (iii) up to a maximum of eight years if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe and is also a bona fide displaced person from East Pakistan and has migrated to India on or after 1st January, 1964;
- (iv) up to a maximum of three years if a candidate is a resident of the Union Territory of Pondicherry and has received education through the medium of French at some stage;
- (v) up to a maximum of three years if a candidate is a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Ceylon and has migrated to India on or after 1st November, 1964, under the Indo-Ceylon Agreement of October, 1964;
- (vi) up to a maximum of eight years if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe and is also a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Ceylon and has migrated to India on or after 1st November, 1964, under the Indo-Ceylon Agreement of October, 1964;
- (vii) up to a maximum of three years if a candidate is a resident of the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu;
- (viii) up to a maximum of three years if a candidate is of Indian origin and has migrated from Kenya, Uganda and the United Republic of Tanzania (formerly Tanganyika and Zanzibar);
- (ix) up to a maximum of three years if a candidate is a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Burma and has migrated to India on or after 1st June, 1963;
- (x) up to a maximum of eight years if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe and is also a bona fide repatriate of Indian origin from Burma and has migrated to India on or after 1st June, 1963;
- (xi) up to a maximum of four years if a candidate is a resident of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands;
- (xii) up to a maximum of 5 years if a candidate is a bona fide displaced Goldsmith.
- (xiii) Retrenched Central Government Employees including Demobilised personnel of Armed Force of India (excepting ex-servicemen discharged on compassionate grounds) ex-employees of the General Engineer Reserve Force, and Territorial Army Staff are allowed to deduct the periods of their previous service rendered from their actual ages and if the resultant ages do not exceed the prescribed maximum age limit by more than 3 years they are deemed to satisfy the age condition provided:—
 - (a) that they had served in the previous departments continuously for the minimum period of six months and in respect of Territorial Army Personnel that they had served on the permanent staff of T.A. Unit or have been embodied for service under T.A. Rule 33.
 - (b) that they were discharged as a result of reduction in the establishments and in respect of ex-employees of the General Engineer Reserve Force that they had been released from that force on completion of their tenure of service under that force and

(c) that they produce certificates in support of (a) and (b) above and also to the effect that they are suitable for re-employment under Government from the Government Officers concerned.

(xiv) Whole-time Cadet Instructors in the N.C.C. who are released from the N.C.C. after or before the expiry of their initial/extended tenure are allowed to deduct the periods of their previous service rendered from their actual ages and if the resultant ages do not exceed the prescribed maximum age limit by more than 3 years they are deemed to satisfy the age condition provided that they had served in the N.C.C. for a period not less than six months prior to their release from the N.C.C.

(xv) The upper age limit will be relaxable up to the age of 35 years on the 1st April 1968 in the case of Government servants of the States which are participating in the "Scheme of recruitment to non-gazetted posts under the Central Government departments by transfer of selected personnel from the appropriate services of the State Governments. Candidates who are eligible to apply under this scheme, should apply through the prescribed departments of the State Governments who have been appointed as Centralising Agency for each State Government.

NOTE:—Age concession will be eligible also to candidates if they are covered by any instructions issued by the Ministry of Home Affairs from time to time.

(xvi) up to the age of 35 years on the 1st April, 1968 in the case of departmental candidates who have put in at least two years continuous service in the Income-tax Department. The upper age limit for Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribe departmental candidates will be 40 years.

The concession at (xvi) above will be admissible also to the following categories of candidates:—

- (a) Persons who have come on deputation to the Office of the Central Board of Direct Taxes from the Income-tax Department and are holding 'excluded' posts;
- (b) the staff working in the Directorates of Inspection (Income-tax)/(Investigation) and (Research, Statistics and Publication).

A candidate holding an "excluded" post either in the office of the Central Board of Direct Taxes or Directorates can appear in the examination either from Delhi or from their parent charge.

N.B. Candidates who are admitted in the examination under age concession admissible to departmental candidates, will not be eligible for appointment if, after submitting applications, they resign from service either before or after taking the examination.

7. The decision of the Commissioner as to the eligibility or otherwise of a candidate for admission to the examination shall be final.

Part V—Standard and Syllabus of the Examination

8. The subjects of the examination, the time allowed and the maximum marks for each subject will be as follows:—

A. Subject Time allowed Maximum Marks

1. General English 3 hours 150 marks.
2. General Knowledge 2 hours 150 marks.
3. Arithmetic. 2 hours 100 marks.

B. Interview. — 100 marks.

9. The syllabus of the examination will be as follows:—

General English.—Candidates will be required to write an essay in English on one of the several specified subjects, to write a précis and to draft letters, memorandum etc. making use of given matters.

General Knowledge.—Knowledge of current events and such matters of every day observation and experience in their scientific aspects as may be expected of an educated person who has not made a special study of any scientific subject. The paper will also include questions on History of India and Geography of a nature which a candidate should be able to answer without special study.

Arithmetic.—Questions of Higher Secondary or High School or equivalent standard.

NOTE:—No request for revaluation of the answer books in any subject will be entertained on any account.

10. All question papers will be answered in English.

11. Candidates shall write the papers in their own hand. In no circumstances will they be allowed the help of an amanuensis (Scribe) to write down answers for them.

12. Only candidates who secure the percentage of marks prescribed by the Directorate will be called for the interview.

Part VI—Fee.

13. Candidate must pay the following fees:—

Application and examination fee of Rs. 7.50P (Rupees 1.87P in the case of candidates belonging to a Scheduled Caste or Scheduled Tribe) of which Re. 1.00 should be paid by Crossed Indian Postal Order when asking for application form and connected documents, and the balance in the form of Crossed Indian Postal Order payable to the Commissioner concerned at his Headquarters. Fees once paid will not be refundable on any account.

Part VII—Admission to the Examination

14. Candidates will have to choose one of the charges of the Commissioners to which they wish to be nominated and they can compete for the vacancies arising in that Charge only. They will also have to choose a centre for taking the examination within the charge of the Commissioner to which they wish to be nominated. However, candidates holding 'excluded' posts in the Central Board of Direct Taxes or in the Directorates of Inspection (Income-tax)/(Investigation)/(Research Statistics and Publication) can appear in the examination either from Delhi or from their parent charges. No candidate will be admitted to the examination unless he holds a certificate of admission from the Commissioner, whose decision in the matter will be final.

15. A candidate found guilty of impersonation, or of submitting fabricated documents or documents which have been tampered with or of making statements which are incorrect or false or suppressing material information or of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination hall or otherwise resorting to any other irregular or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination may in addition to rendering himself liable to a criminal prosecution, be debarred, either permanently or for a specified period, from employment under the Central Government.

16. No documents except those required in the application form will be taken into consideration. Any attempt on the part of a candidate to obtain support for his candidature by any means shall disqualify him for admission.

NOTE:—Applications from persons already in Government service and/or Public Undertakings etc. will be entertained only if they are routed through their present employers. Advance copies of such applications can be sent direct to the Commissioner concerned for his information so as to reach him positively before the prescribed date for the receipt of application, but unless the original application is received by the Commissioner through the proper channel well in advance of the date of commencement of the examination, the candidates will not be permitted to take the examination. The decision of the Commissioner in such cases will be final and the applications received late will be rejected without entering into further correspondence with the candidates.

Part VIII—Travelling Allowance

17. No travelling allowance would be admissible either for appearing in the examination or for the interview.

Part IX—Appointment of Successful Candidates

18. The Commissioner shall prepare a panel of a suitable number of successful candidates of his charge in the order of their merit and in that order candidates up to the number of reserved and unreserved vacancies in that Commissioner's charge will be offered appointment as Inspector in his charge. The panel will lapse on 31st December of the subsequent year until extended by the appropriate authority.

19. The candidates will in the first instance be appointed temporarily and will be on probation for a period of two years. During that period they will receive a fixed pay of Rs. 210 plus the usual allowances and will be required to pass a departmental examination. Inspectors of Income-tax who qualify in the Departmental Examination prescribed for them in full within one year of appointment, however, may be allowed to draw their first increment only on completion of one year's service in the grade of Inspector. An Inspector who does not qualify in the Departmental Examination in full within one year will be allowed the first increment only when he qualifies in the Examination in full. Passing in the Departmental Examination will be an essential condition for successful completion of the probation and those who fail to qualify in the Departmental Examination will be liable to be discharged without assigning any reasons.

NOTE:—Success in the competitive examination confers no right to appointment unless Government are satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment.

Part X—Documents to be sent along with Application Form

Crossed Indian Postal Orders.—All postal orders should bear the signature of the issuing Post Master and a clear stamp of the Issuing Post Office. All Postal Orders should be crossed and made payable to the Commissioner concerned at the Post Office located at his headquarters. In no case will Postal Orders payable at any other Post Office be accepted. Defaced or mutilated Postal Orders will also not be accepted.
